A healthy decision for your small business

The Indiana Chamber of Commerce is dedicated to helping companies and organizations—in all 92 Indiana counties—take care of business. With a staff of more than 50 dedicated professionals and through our many programs and services, we represent 5,000 member companies that employ 800,000 Hoosier workers. The Indiana Chamber:

- Represents companies of all sizes and in all industries
- Provides free information and products that save your organization time and money
- Delivers member discounts on employee training, regulatory compliance guides and more

ChamberCare: Saving you money

Member businesses with 2–99 employees can receive health coverage plans at discounted rates of up to 5 percent.* Choose from several valuable plans from Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield, backed by the strong Hoosier presence Anthem is known for. Chamber members have reported paying for their membership several times over, thanks to their ChamberCare savings.

EXCLUSIVE INDIANA CHAMBER BENEFITS:

Member savings on health insurance with ChamberCare from Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield

Free expert advice with Chamber Helplines

Free leads and reports from the Business Research Center

Free statewide exposure through the Chamber web site

Chamber Helplines: Free expert advice. Whenever you want.

Helpful professional advice—just a phone call away. Our Chamber helplines help our members save thousands of dollars a year in potential noncompliance penalties, fines and lawsuits. Helpline topics include:

- Human resources
- OSHA
- Environmental issues
- Taxes
- Training grants
- Communications/Public relations
- Internships

BRC: Your personal research department

Your membership comes with access to our comprehensive Business Research Center, which is home to an array of services and specialty publications. The BRC offers you:

- Up to 1,000 customized business leads per membership year
- Reference materials and online databases
- Information such as salary comparisons, demographic information, cost-of-living data and more
- Major employers by city, region, state, ZIP code
- 20-plus specialty publications, all free in electronic format for members

Indiana Business Publications: We keep you compliant

Membership also gives you access to more than 30 business survival guides focusing on keeping you compliant in a variety of important areas, including employment law, hiring and firing practices, disaster planning, worker's compensation, unemployment issues and more. All of our business survival guides are available to you with a 25 percent member discount.

Member Spotlight: See your name in lights

All Chamber members are eligible for our Member Spotlight, which provides free visibility and statewide exposure on our web site. Share your business's story and highlight your products/services to members and non-members throughout the state. We highlight 10 new members every two weeks at indianachamber.com, meaning your turn in the spotlight is never too far away—or over too soon.

To join or for more information on membership, please contact Tim Brewer at 317-264-7539 or tbrewer@indianachamber.com.

HELPLINES:

"We've saved hundreds of dollars, at least, in attorney fees already. With all the changes and complexities in employment law, the Indiana Chamber Helpline has been a real time- and money-saver for our business. It's great for those 'what if' questions."

Linda Zaremba

Treasurer—American Sealants

BUSINESS RESEARCH CENTER:

"The reports the Business Research Center provides us have been great. They're informative, helpful and easy to understand. They've been key in helping us identify and target businesses we can work with."
