

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction to the U.S. Immigration System	1
Goals and Purposes of U.S. Immigration Law and Policy	1
Roles of Government Agencies: The DOS, USCIS and DOL	3
U.S. Department of State (DOS)	4
United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)	5
United States Department of Labor (DOL)	7
Sources of U.S. Immigration Laws and Policies	8
Chapter 2: Nonimmigrant (Temporary)
Business-Related Visa Options and Procedures	11
Introduction	11
Temporary Visa Classifications and Categories	12
General Temporary Visa Application Procedures	16
Cases in Which a Preliminary USCIS Petition Is Not Required	16
Cases in Which a Preliminary USCIS Petition Is Required	17
Applying for the Temporary Visa (Passport Stamp) at a U.S. Consulate or Embassy	19
Discontinuation of Domestic Visa Revalidation (Renewal) Services	20
Choosing a Consular Post for Visa Processing and Third Country Processing	21
Business-Related Visa Categories: Descriptions and Procedures	22
Treaty Traders and Investors	23
Executives and Managers	35
Professionals	44
Business Visitors: B-1 Classification	75
Foreign Students	78
Trainees	81
Laborers	102
J-1 Exchange Visitors (Trainees and Summer Exchanges)	115
Change of Status vs. Extension of Status	116
Changing Employers	117
Ramifications for Nonimmigrant (Temporary) Visas	118
Ramifications for Permanent Visas	119
Dealing with Mergers, Acquisitions and Other Corporate Changes	120
Types of Corporate Changes Affecting Employee Visas	121
Effects on Temporary Visas	121
Effects on Permanent Visas	123
Special Situations: Successors in Interest and Transfers to Affiliated Employers	124
Spouses: Employment Categories	125
“Industry-Specific” Visa Solutions	125
Technology Occupations (Computer Professionals)	126
Artists and Entertainers	127
Allied Medical Professionals (Non-Physicians)	129
Academic Professionals (Universities and Colleges)	137
Religious Workers and Ministers	138
Crewmen and Pilots	139
Media Professionals	140
Agricultural Workers	140

Chapter 3: Immigrant (Permanent) Visa Avenues: Employment-Based ...	143
Introduction	143
Overview of Employment-Based Preferences: Five Categories	144
First Preference (EB-1) Categories: Priority Workers	147
EB-1-1: Foreign Nationals with Extraordinary Ability.....	147
EB-1-2: Outstanding Researchers and Professors.....	149
EB-1-3: Multinational Manager/Executive	150
Second Preference (EB-2) Categories: Exceptional Workers	152
EB-2-1: Foreign Nationals of Exceptional Ability and National Interest Waivers.....	152
EB-2-2: Foreign Nationals Holding Advanced Professional Degrees	154
Third Preference (EB-3) Categories: Skilled Workers and Professionals	155
Definitions of EB-3 Subcategories	155
Labor Certification	157
Wage Issues	184
Change of Employers, Mergers, Acquisitions and Other Events That May Affect Approved and Pending Labor Certification Cases	185
Substitution of Foreign National Beneficiaries Permitted	190
Notices of Findings	191
Immigrant Visa Petitions for Third Preference Workers.....	191
Fourth Preference (EB-4) Categories: Special Immigrants	194
Fifth Preference (EB-5) Category: Employment-Creation Investors	194
EB-5-1: Foreign Nationals Who Invest in “Targeted Employment Areas”	195
EB-5-2: Foreign Nationals Who Invest in Other Employment Areas	195
Procedure	196
The Final Step of the Immigrant Visa Procedure:
Consular Processing vs. Adjustment of Status.....	197
Adjustment of Status	197
Consular Processing	200
Chapter 4: Family-Based Permanent and Temporary Visa Avenues	205
Introduction	205
Marriage to U.S. Citizens and Applying for Permanent Resident Status	206
Procedure If the Foreign National Spouse Is Physically Present in the U.S... ..	206
Procedure If the Foreign National Spouse Is Physically Present Outside the U.S.	210
Marriage to U.S. Citizens and Applying for Temporary K-3 Status	211
Other Relatives of U.S. Citizens and Relatives of Permanent Residents	211
Immediate Relatives	211
Family-Based First Preference Individuals.....	212
Family-Based Second Preference Individuals	212
Family-Based Third Preference Individuals.....	213
Family-Based Fourth Preference Individuals	213
Fiancé Visas.....	213
Priority Dates, Visa Numbers and Backlogs	213
Derivative Beneficiaries.....	215
Chapter 5: Diversity Visa Lottery — Avenue to Permanent Resident Status.....	217
Introduction	217
General Requirements	218

Nativity Requirements	218
Education and Training Requirements	219
Application Procedure	219
No Fee for Entry	219
Winners Are Notified by Mail	220
Chapter 6: Maintaining Lawful Temporary and Permanent Status	221
Maintaining Temporary Status	221
Compliance with Terms of Status: Permitted Conduct	221
Consequences of Falling “Out of Status”	222
Maintaining Lawful Permanent Resident Status.....	228
Duration	228
Loss by Abandonment.....	228
Loss by Felony Conviction	229
Re-entry Permits.....	229
Replacement and Renewal of I-551 Resident Alien Cards	230
Chapter 7: Acquiring Citizenship.....	231
Introduction.....	231
Citizenship at Birth	231
People Born in the United States	232
People Born Outside the United States.....	232
Automatic Citizenship for Children.....	232
Naturalization to U.S. Citizenship	234
Application Procedure	234
Potential Pitfalls in the Naturalization Process	236
Chapter 8: Employing Foreign Employees —
Legal Rights and Responsibilities.....	239
Introduction.....	239
Employer Obligations Under IRCA	240
New Form I-9 Required After December 31, 2005.....	241
When Is a Foreign Worker Authorized for Employment?	241
Hiring Foreign Workers Currently in the
United States (Pre-existing Visa Status).....	243
Hiring Foreign Students.....	245
Hiring Canadian Professionals	245
Hiring Out-of-Status Foreign Nationals.....	246
When Can a Foreign National Go on the Payroll?.....	247
Consequences of Unauthorized Employment: Penalties and Enforcement.....	248
Sanctions, Audits and Investigations	248
Penalties.....	250
Defenses.....	252
Independent Contractor and Joint Employer Liability	253
Key I-9 Issues.....	258
Duty to Inquire vs. Duty to Not Unfairly Discriminate.....	258
Pre-hire Inquiries.....	259
Strategies When an Employer Is Put on Notice Through Workplace Sources	262
Immigration Employment Compliance Strategies,
Timing and Verification Procedures	264
Employee Completion of Section 1 on First Day of Employment.....	265

Employer Review of Verification Documents by Third Day of Employment ...	266
Employer Must Not Tell Employee What Documents to Present	266
Employer Must Not Request an USCIS-Issued Work Document.....	266
Employer Must Not Consider a Section 1 Expiration Date in Its Hiring Decision	266
Employer Must Not Request Documentation to Verify Section 1 Information (Apart from Documentation to Satisfy Section 2 Requirements)	267
Employer Must Review Section 2 Documents to Ensure They Are on the List of Acceptable Documents	267
Employer Must Review Section 2 Documents to Assure Their Genuineness ...	268
Employer Must Review Section 2 Documents to Assure They Relate to the Employee	268
Employer Should Review Section 2 Documents to Assure They Are Consistent with Other Information About the Employee	269
Employer Must Complete Section 2 with Pertinent Information About the Employee’s Documents	270
Employer May Keep Copies of Section 2 Documents	271
Employer Must Maintain I-9 Form for Required Period of Time	272
Employer Must Conduct Reverification by the Work Authorization Expiration Date Listed in Section 1 or in the Employee’s Work Eligibility Document....	272
Employer May Electronically Complete and Store I-9 Forms	273
I-9 Document Guide	274
The Full List of Acceptable I-9 Documents.....	276
Developing a Comprehensive I-9 Policy.....	284
Employment Discrimination: Grounds and Procedures	286
Grounds.....	286
Protected Individuals	287
Procedures	287
Unemployment Compensation	288
Worker’s Compensation	288
Wage and Hour Laws.....	289
Labor Laws	289
“At Will” Employment.....	290
Social Security Issues	291
Social Security Administration: Applying for a Number	291
SAVE System and New Number Delays.....	292
Social Security Administration “No Match” Letters	292
ICE’s Proposed Safe Harbor Regulation for Employers Who Receive a ‘No-Match’ Letter from SSA	295
Taxation of Foreign Workers	298
Overview of General Tax Principles.....	298
Exempt Individuals.....	300
Closer Connection Test	301
Tax Treaties.....	301
Examples of the Interplay Between Immigration and Tax Considerations....	301
Dealing with Layoffs and Other Terminations of Employment	303
Layoffs of H-1B (Specialty Occupation or Professional) Employees.....	303
Layoffs of Other Foreign National Employees (E-1, E-2, L-1, TN, O-1, H-2B, H-3, J-1 and F-1 Status)	306

Layoffs of Employees in the Green Card Process.....	307
Appendix A: Government Agencies and Addresses.....	313
Appendix B: New USCIS Immigration Benefit Application Fees	315
Appendix C: PERM — What Does It Mean for Employers?	319
What Is PERM?.....	319
What Is Different?	320
What Happens to Pending Labor Certifications?.....	323
Conclusion	323
Appendix D: Sample I-9 Compliance Policy.....	325
Index.....	351