

Jeff Brantley

Vice President, Political Affairs and PAC

He has extensive experience in political campaign management, issue advocacy, government relations, trade associations and communications. He is responsible for the Indiana Chamber's non-partisan political action program, Indiana Business for Responsive Government.

Jeff previously operated Proponent Consulting, LLC, a public affairs, political action and communications firm. He was also executive director of the Hoosiers for Economic Growth and School Choice Indiana.

Other professional highlights include director of governmental affairs for Christel DeHaan Enterprises, executive director of the Coalition for Positive Progress, field staff for the National Right to Work Committee and founder of the Indiana Right to Work Committee.

Jeff is a graduate of Ball State University and resides in Bargersville, IN.

Contact Jeff at (317) 264-7544 or via email at jbrantley@indianachamber.com.