

RACHEL TOMASIK

Associate Consultant
Certified Facilitator of Everything DiSC Workplace®

Rachel is passionate about using her industrial/organizational psychology expertise to help leaders and teams grow. Her ability to connect with others and her enthusiasm for developing leaders and teams helps her create rewarding experiences that best meets clients' needs. Rachel enjoys new challenges and leaders appreciate her down-to-earth, authentic personality as she connects with each person in the room.

Before coming to FlashPoint Rachel held positions in website marketing and the legal industry. She honed strong research skills as an assistant in the Information Management and Institutional Research office at Indiana University–Purdue University Indianapolis as well as the psychology department at Taylor University. She holds a master's degree in industrial/organizational psychology and a bachelor's degree in psychology and is a member of the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology and a certified Everything DiSC Workplace® facilitator.

In her time outside of work Rachel volunteers for a number of programs at her church, is an active member of Edge Mentoring, and has taken part in global service projects in Ireland, India, and Lebanon. She enjoys traveling, exploring new restaurants, and playing sports, including golf, which she's played since age four. Rachel also serves as the Vice Chair on the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra FORTE Board.
