

Noise and Hearing Conservation

December 9, 2026 | Indiana Chamber Conference Center

PRESENTED BY

Schedule of Events

12:30 p.m. Registration
1 p.m. Seminar begins
4:30 p.m. Adjourn

Topics Covered

Introduction and Background

- Purpose, history, scope
- Application of the standard

Hazards of Noise

- Noise and sound
- Properties
- Evaluation
- Sound level meter versus dosimeters

OSHA Criterion

- Permissible exposure limit and action levels
- Time weighted averages

The Hearing Conservation Program

- Trigger levels
- Requirements
- Base and annual audiometric testing
- Hearing protective devices
- Employee information and training

OSHA Hearing Loss Cases

New Trends in Evaluating Hearing Protective Devices Effectiveness
Extended Shift Exposures